

As a visiting elective student at the University of Toronto, you must locate and acknowledge your awareness of resources on identifying and reporting incidents of learner mistreatment, available at:

<https://meded.temertymedicine.utoronto.ca/learner-mistreatment>.

SECTION 1: STUDENT INFORMATION

Last Name:	First Name:
Student Number:	Home School:

SECTION 2: LEARNER MISTREATMENT RESOURCES

The Temerty Faculty of Medicine Learner Mistreatment Guideline applies to all learners, including visiting elective students. The Guideline is available for reference on the web at all times and can be accessed through the yellow “Student Assistance” button on any MD Program webpage: <http://www.md.utoronto.ca/>.

If you want to discuss, disclose, or report something confidentially that has happened during the course of your visiting elective, you may do so in two ways:

1. Connect with a Designated Leader
2. Disclose or Report Mistreatment Online

Call 911 or seek immediate assistance from onsite security or other authorities if you are concerned about impending harm to yourself or others. Contact a designated leader only after your safety is ensured.
